

Please leave the Do Not Call list in tact as is so that the general public can have their privacy at home without being bothered by calls. As it is voluntary to sign up for the Do not Call list, people should have the right to block unwanted calls to their private home phones.